

Phonics National Test – Year 1 (June 2022)

In June 2022 the children in Year 1 took their national phonics test. All the children passed the test except 1 pupil with SEND.

We are pleased to report that 96% of pupils passed the test including borderline pupils who had received extra boosting and support. The national figure is 76%. This puts the school 20% above national which is excellent.