

Nursery places 2023/24:

Children are entitled to free Nursery education (15 hours per week) from the term after their third birthday – but here at Tankersley St Peter's our admission policy allows us to admit children the day after their third birthday. Please give us a ring to register – we accept applications from birth. We offer flexible provision to suit each family.

We also offer 30 hours provision for those families who are eligible for the additional hours. To check your eligibility and for more information, visit the website below or contact us and let us help you to secure your child's place.
