You will have received a letter from us this week, regarding anti bullying week. To show support for this event, we are asking children to wear odd socks THIS MONDAY 13th of November. It is a normal school uniform, with odd socks! We will be having an assembly on the theme on Monday and celebrating all the work that we have completed on the Friday.

Can I remind parents, that the school uniform consists of black shoes, some children are starting to wear different colour trainers.

I have added some dates for your diary to the letter, and I will be adding all the Christmas dates too.

The children have been really busy this week and we have had a lovely remembrance worship this afternoon. I have seen some beautiful poems by the Y4s and some great paintings by nursery.

The Y6 have also been to crucial crew, and I had some amazing feedback from a member of staff who went with them, saying that the class were so polite and a credit to the school while they were away. I was so incredibly proud of them.

Tankersley hub. We have a stall!

Have a lovely weekend and remember ODD SOCKS ON MONDAY!
