*'Guide me in your truth and teach me,
for you are God my Saviour and my hope is in you all day long.'*

Hello,

Here we are again in the last week of the half-term. Time is flying by in the Famous Fives.

This half term, we have been using 'The Tempest' by William Shakespeare as a stimulus for our English learning. This week we will complete our 'Love to Read' book review.

In Maths, we are learning about Decimals: adding and subtracting decimals.

The Maya has been our History topic and in RE will we have been thinking about Islam. This week, we will be 'sparkling' our knowledge.

In PE, we have a Striking and Fielding focus and Science is Living Things.

Reminders-
